COMMENCEMENT 2023 MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear graduates, parents, families and friends,

Welcome to the 2023 commencement exercises for St. Joseph's University, New York. The graduates of 2023 are the 104th class to receive degrees from St. Joseph's, but only the second to receive their degrees from St. Joseph's University.

We are thrilled to celebrate these momentous events with you today, a commencement that celebrates the accomplishments of students from the entire University – Brooklyn, Long Island and Online.

Our patron, St. Joseph, took very courageous steps to protect his family, living his life in a way that reflected the very same values that would become the five pillars of our institution: integrity, spiritual depth, social responsibility, service and intellectual rigor. St. Joseph listened carefully to God and his own heart and dreams. The Sisters of St. Joseph have a special maxim that advises us all to do the same – to “Dream the dream that God dreams for you.”

Students, it is my hope that you take this special spirit of St. Joseph out into the world and make it a better place. Our deepest desire for you is to use the tools and skills you have learned with us to transform the world.

You have completed your degrees during a difficult and unprecedented period in our history. It was your strength and resilience, together with the support of your parents, grandparents, family members and friends, that allowed you to persevere and achieve this milestone. You should feel a tremendous amount of pride and a great sense of gratitude.

Please enjoy this special day and know that the faculty and staff of St. Joseph's will always be here for you, just as we have been for the thousands of alumni who have preceded you. And remember, while today is the end of one stage of your life, it is also the beginning of another.

Congratulations to each of you on your own incredible achievement.

Sincerely,

Asma Aleema Hosein

Long Island Campus Valedictorian

Whether it's in the classroom, leading a club, or serving her community, Asma Aleema Hosein lives out the St. Joseph's University, New York motto Esse non videri — “To be, not to seem” — every day.

A child study major with a concentration in psychology,

Asma stands up as a leader once more this spring, as she represents the Long Island Campus as its Class of 2023 valedictorian.

Asma's commitment to St. Joseph's five pillars became abundantly clear even before she started attending the University, having been selected as a recipient of the University's Presidential Scholarship.

Throughout her four years at St. Joseph's University, Asma served in many leadership roles, including co-program director for Campus Activities Board, co-founder and president of the CEC/Educators Club, orientation team leader and planning committee member, president of Kappa Delta Pi International Honor Society in Education, senate member of the Student Government Association, member of the Student Alumni Association, co-founder and treasurer of the Women's Empowerment Club, vice president of the Muslim Student Association, and member of the LEAD program. She's also been the recipient of many awards at the University, has been named to four different honor societies and has made the Dean's List each semester.

Asma's drive to help others also shines through in her community service. She served as coordinator and tutor for a program where St. Joseph's students tutored students in the Patchogue-Medford School District. Additionally, she's served in many positions at the Selden Mosque, including coordinator of SMYLES, a summer leadership program; kindergarten teacher at Saturday School; co-coordinator and vice principal of the mosque's summer program; and co-coordinator of the Muslim Girls' Youth Group.

Asma is enrolled to begin pursuing her M.A. in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages at St. Joseph's next fall. She has also landed a position in the Patchogue-Medford School District.

Maeve Bridget McKeon

Brooklyn Campus Valedictorian

As the daughter of two college professors, Maeve Bridget McKeon grasped the importance of school at a young age and strove to be a well-rounded college student when she arrived at St. Joseph's University, New York.

Maeve's parents asked only two things of her and her sisters growing up: try your best and be kind. Never pressured to succeed academically, Maeve developed as a leader and model citizen.

Her willingness to take on leadership roles in prominent student groups at St. Joseph's — including the Student Government Association (SGA) and the softball team — made her an influential figure well-suited to lead the Class of 2023 as Brooklyn Campus valedictorian.

As vice president of the SGA, Maeve played an integral role in facilitating and promoting student-led events, including a support drive for the victims of the Turkey-Syria Earthquake in February 2023. She also served on the budget committee, working with the treasurer to maintain the SGA's financial stability.

Maeve played on the campus' softball team for four seasons and served as a team captain during her senior year. She helped facilitate a partnership with Team IMPACT that integrated 10-year-old leukemia patient Phoenix Scott as an honorary program member.

Additionally, she served as vice president of the Law and Justice Society for over two years and was an active member of the Honors program throughout her time at the University. In each of her leadership positions at St. Joseph's, Maeve endeavored to motivate herself and her peers to be better students and people.

A criminal justice graduate with a minor in Spanish, Maeve plans to live out the University's mission as a member of the Peace Corps.

Honorary Degree Recipients

Sherrie Van Arnam

Doctorate of Humane Letters, honoris causa

For nearly four decades, Sherrie Van Arnam stood as a stabilizing force and an influential figure at St. Joseph's University, New York. She held various leadership roles at the Brooklyn Campus after graduating college and arriving at the institution in 1972, most recently serving as special assistant to the president for Student Life until her retirement in 2021.

Ms. Van Arnam was the vice president for Student Life at the Brooklyn Campus from 2015 to 2019 and briefly assumed the same role on the Long Island Campus in an interim capacity. She provided leadership to various offices and services, including the Office of Campus Ministry, the Council for the Arts, and the Office of Counseling and Wellness.

Hired as an administrative assistant in the Office of the Academic Dean, Ms. Van Arnam was promoted to admissions director in 1974 and, in 1983, became the student activities director.

Deeply admired by students, faculty and staff alike, she oversaw student services and athletics from 1991 to 2008, and after a two-year stint as director of student activities and co-curricular programs, she became assistant dean of students in 2010.

During her tenure at St. Joseph's, Ms. Van Arnam had a hand in developing, implementing or overseeing the First Year Experience (FYE) program, the Student Leadership Experience, the Council of Multicultural Clubs and Organizations, and many other fixtures of the institution.

A trusted member of the President's Cabinet and the Brooklyn Campus' Senior Leadership Team for many years, Ms. Van Arnam made countless contributions to the University's long-term success.

Ms. Van Arnam enjoys the loving support of her husband Lewis; her parents LeRoy and Venetha; her sister Debi; her nephew Jason; and her nieces Amanda and Emily, as well as their spouses and children.

Marian Russo

Doctorate of Humane Letters, honoris causa

A pillar of the St. Joseph's University, New York community for 30 years, Marian Russo continues to exemplify the University's five core values — integrity, intellectual rigor, spiritual depth, social responsibility and service. As the beloved director of Student Services and Activities on the Long Island Campus, Ms. Russo instilled in students a passion for extracurricular involvement until her retirement in 2013.

Ms. Russo started at St. Joseph's in 1984 as assistant to then-director Marge Brennan before quickly advancing in her role. This came after 20 years of teaching English at Commack High School and Madonna Heights School on Long Island.

Ms. Russo took great pride in overseeing and supporting many clubs and organizations, as well as hosting a plethora of events that allowed St. Joseph's students to discover and celebrate their individuality and leadership skills. She dedicated herself to the students, who found their voice and vision under her guidance.

For Giving Day in 2022, the University created the Marian Russo Student Activity Fund in honor of her service to the institution. Thousands of dollars were raised to provide opportunities for St. Joseph's students to learn, grow and thrive in the pursuit of a better world.

Ms. Russo has been blessed with a beautiful and amazing family: her mom and dad, Theresa and William Fouchardt; her late husband Ray, who served as an adjunct professor and tennis coach at the University; her daughters Cynthia and Laura; her granddaughters Olivia and Sophia; her son-in-law Mike; and her best friend Loretta.

HISTORY OF COMMENCEMENT ROBES

What suggests the future more than the sight of graduates in academic robes?

The garb is an ancient one, centuries old and rich in meaning. Academic dress is traced to the robes medieval monks wore for warmth in unheated monasteries. The hoods on today's commencement robes probably originated from the need to keep tonsured heads warm. Since clergy were the literate class in medieval society, they became associated with scholarship. And the first universities actually grew up around great cathedrals that were centers for ecclesiastical education. As the universities began to train young men for occupations other than the ecclesiastical, such as law, some students probably were inclined to abandon "monkish" robes for more worldly garb.

Possibly in reaction to this, a 1321 statute at the University of Coimbra required all "Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors" to wear gowns. Other statutes during the second half of the 14th century forbid "excessive in apparel" at English universities, instead directing the wearing of long gowns. This distinctive dress set students apart from other citizens in university towns, fueling the historic conflict between "town and gown."

Academic dress design varies among European institutions. But the United States has a standardized code of academic dress authorized by the American Council on Education. Because of this code we can look at today's commencements and know the wearer's study discipline, degree level and even what institution he or she is graduating from.

According to the Academic Costume Code, a bachelor's gown is worn closed with long, pointed sleeves. A master's gown is worn open, with long sleeves cut to hang away from the forearm in an oblong shape. Doctor's gowns can be worn open or closed and may be trimmed with wide velvet panels running down the gown's front and velvet bars on the sleeves. The velvet is black or the color of the wearer's study discipline. Hoods, if used, are lined in the college or university's color and bordered with a color that indicates the wearer's degree. In the case of the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) degree, the dark blue color is used to represent the mastery of the discipline of learning and scholarship in any field that is attested to by the awarding of this degree and is not intended to represent the field of philosophy.

According to the Academic Costume Code, here are the colors associated with degrees or study disciplines:
